

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS (FAQs)

Qus: I am appearing in the Final Year / Semester of my qualifying exam / Course or the result of my final / Semester is awaited, can I apply?

Ans: No, Only the candidates who have completed course on or before cut-off date are eligible to apply.

Qus: While submitting the online application it shows some "ERROR" or "NO PAGE FOUND", what should I do?

Ans: It might be because of the Speed of Internet Connection being used by you, however you may take screen shot and send to us at application24x7helpdesk@gmail.com to resolve the issue.

Qus: In the final result of my qualifying course, I have been awarded with CGPA / OGPA / SGPA but not with Percentage, in this case what should I do?

Ans: Obtain the CGPA / OGPA / SGPA (Grade) to Percentage Conversion Formula from your respective Institute / University, calculate the percentage and mention it.

Qus: I have secured 59.99% marks in Diploma, can I apply?

Ans: No, your candidature will not be accepted by the system as it cannot rectify the fractions.

Qus: What about CVPPPL Profile and Projects under it?

Ans: CVPPPL profile and details about the Projects are placed on CVPPPL website www.cvpplindia.com.

Qus: Whether the advertised posts are for fresher's or experienced candidates?

Ans: Freshers can apply for the advertised posts, however experienced candidates shall be given preference.

Qus: Can Provisional certificate be considered in case candidates do not have diploma?

Ans: Provisional certificate can be considered but marks sheet depicting consolidated marks of all semesters/years should also be uploaded.

Qus: How the Project Affected Families can apply?

Ans: While filling online application, candidates belonging to Project Affected Families will select PAFoption and proceed further for getting relaxation in qualifying marks.